NECUSA NEWS

Happy November everyone! We hope that your fall semesters are moving by quickly and as uneventfully as possible. The world is in the Holiday Season, it is important to remember and acknowledge the many diverse students, faculty, and staff we all work with every day, and the various Holidays that they celebrate.

It is almost time to renew your memberships, details on rates and how to renew memberships will be sent out in January.

As a reminder, NECUSA hosts an online Job Board on the website where you can post or browse member institution job openings. See below for more information.

Upcoming Trainings:

- As everyone's schedules get busier with the end of semester events, activities, and finals there are no planned trainings in November, December, or January.
- February brings back the member favorite Cracker Barrel!
- Details of future trainings will be coming soon.

We want to thank every one who was able to attend the Training hosted by Mercy College, both in person and virtual. It was very informative and great discussions were had. Many thanks to Doug Babcock (Dartmouth College), Thomas Mihalko (Exacom), and Trooper Jeffrey Dovigh for their excellent presentations. If you missed the training, you can find the video here.

2022 Fall Semester News

2023 Conference to be held at Swarthmore College

Next summer's annual conference will be hosted by Swarthmore College, in Swarthmore PA!!! Visit <https://www.swarthmore.edu/> to check out the college. We are looking forward to planning the next conference, making some changes to benefit everyone's schedule. If you have any comments or suggestions, please get in touch with a member of the board.

Does your department have open positions? Did you know about the Job Board on the NECUSA web page? Take a look at career opportunities at other member institutions. If you would like a position you are hiring for posted, please email links to the job posting to Doug Babcock.

Nominate your Staff for Awards! Nominations are accepted all year, recognize your colleagues!

The NECUSA Board wants to remind Directors that at the Annual Conference we make award presentations to employees in a number of categories. The Awards Committee asks you to consider nominating your staff for their exceptional work. Review the Awards Section of the NECUSA website for a description of the Various Awards. Contact Faith Biesecker, our Awards Committee representatives if you have any questions.

Possible Spring 2023 trainings, let us know of your interests or training you are looking for:

- Crime Prevention through Environmental Design
- ALICE
- Emergency Management
- Effective Response to Protests and Demonstrations

Are you interested in Hosting an Annual Conference?

Contact a Board Member or let us know you are interested! Any member institution can host. What is needed: a space for sessions, a space for vendors and networking, a space for sleeping (or hotel nearby), and on site logistical support are the key aspects. Contact us to learn more about what hosts do versus what the Board is responsible for.

NECUSA Board Elections- Wanting to be more involved?

Elections for NECUSA Board of Director Membership are held at the June Business Meeting held during the annual conference. Being on the Board is one of the best ways to help the organization go in the direction you want. Please contact Mary Savage if you are interested.

Recruit Nearby Schools

Been a Member of NECUSA for a few years? Do you know colleagues at institutions near you that are not members or who have let their membership lapse? Please encourage them to join. They can contact Treasurer Faith Biesecker to become a member.

We want to hear from you!

Send us stories of your department's successes. Stories that showcase your department's talents and strengths. Your story may be included in upcoming newsletters! Contact Secretary Dave Bartels.

Do You Have Trainings You Found To Be Useful And Beneficial To Your Department?

Is there training you would like to see sponsored by NECUSA? Is there training that you or someone in your department would like to offer NECUSA member institutions? Contact Secretary Dave Bartels.

Yours sincerely,
