NORTHEAST COLLEGES & UNIVERSITIES SECURITY ASSOCIATION

“AMERICA’S OLDEST CAMPUS LAW ENFORCEMENT ORGANIZATION”

February 2018

Our Mission Statement:

The mission of the NorthEast Colleges and Universities Security Association (NECUSA) is to promote public safety in higher education through professional development, networking and information sharing through formal and informal opportunities. We hold the principles of basic human respect and the value of family at the core of our association and strive to promote these principles through proactive education, outreach and support.

Peer Review:

NECUSA professionals can assist colleges and universities in developing and managing security programs and organizational structures meeting industry standards and best practices among peer institutions from within the region. NECUSA has provided peer reviews to schools at the request of newly hired or appointed Chiefs/Directors of Public Safety who were looking for some guidance in determining a solid strategic plan for improvement during their tenure. Other schools have reached out to NECUSA for a peer review as a Chief/Director was leaving or retiring, and looking to examine existing organizational structures, policies and protocols as they relate to current standards, model programs and best practices. For peer review information, please contact Bill Lafferty at: wlaflerty@gettysburg.edu

NECUSA AWARDS

Each year NECUSA presents 5 awards to personnel in our member institutions in recognition to their outstanding performance, achievements and service. We also present one scholarship award.

Please visit www.necusa.org/necusa-awards/ website for more details.

Why Have a NECUSA Membership.....

In addition to providing professional development opportunities to members, NECUSA places high value on their reputation as a family organization. Conferences offer programs for spouses, partners and children and include them in all social functions. The organization leadership understands the demands of the campus law enforcement field and strives to create opportunities to involve family and friends to bridge the gaps that often exist because of the long hours and demanding work.
